 - (ii) would be outweighed by the benefit accruing to the persons whose access to a telecommunications network would be secured or facilitated by the exercise of that power,
 - (b) whether the establishment, operation or maintenance of the licensee's telecommunications network would be materially prejudiced if the power in question were not exercised, and
 - (c) the objectives set out in section 2 of the Regulation

Law.

(6) Where an appeal under this paragraph is instituted, the licensee may not, unless the Court directs otherwise, exercise the power in question until the appeal is determined or withdrawn.
